

I'm writing to encourage the FCC not to implement any proposal which would decrease the protection provided by Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Before the law was enacted, I was barraged with telemarketing during evening meals and times of relaxation at least 24 times per week. I now enjoy peaceful evenings, my right to privacy uninterrupted. Please help me keep this right. Thank you.